Tips for adding humor to your speech

Humor is a powerful tool. If you can get your audience to laugh, the probability of them remembering your speech is high. Adding humor has the following benefits: -

- Appropriate humor that's true to you let's your audience get a sense of your personality.
- People like to laugh. If your speech is funny, your audience will stay engaged.
- Good humor stands out and is memorable.

Three things you can do to tap into your inherent humor and add it to your next speech:

- Identify things that make you laugh.
- Use jokes in between your speech.
- It's hard to write a funny speech, but it's easy to write a serious speech and then spice it with humor.

Hearing versus Listening

ADD HUMOUR IN YOUR SPEECH

1. Identify things that make you laugh.
2. Add jokes.
3. Add funny real stories.
4. First write the speech and then spice it with humor.
5. Enjoy giving the speech to add fun.
